Wine Flight

Hall of Fame

California and the Pacific Northwest have proven over the last few decades they are capable of making world class wines across the board. From Pinot Grigio to Syrah, no grape seems too difficult to grow successfully.

Three grapes, however, have displayed a special capability on US soil. Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Cabernet Sauvignon have become staples in our own backyard. When competing against similar wines in other countries, most US wine enthusiasts simply prefer the domestic stuff. Sonoma County, Napa Valley and Willamette Valley have all marked themselves as leading wine regions that rival even the historic Burgundy and Bordeaux.

Our featured flight offers a sample of each of these classic wines, from a producer who is deserving of a Hall of Fame placement. The best of the best in one fantastic wine flight.

One half glass of each of the following:

Nickel Nickel, Truchard Vineyard, Chardonnay, Napa Valley, CA 2006

Adlesheim, Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley, OR 2006

Rombauer, Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley, CA 2006
